AMERICAN BAR ASSOCIATION PUBLISHES REORGANIZING FAILING BUSINESSES TREATISE FEATURING CHAPTERS CO-AUTHORED BY AARON L. HAMMER, ETAHN M. COHEN, MARK S. MELICKIAN, JONATHAN P. FRIEDLAND AND ELIZABETH B. VANDESTEEG

The American Bar Association published its Reorganizing Failing Businesses treatise, which included chapters entitled, “United States Securities Laws Implications of Corporate Restructurings” co-authored by Aaron L. Hammer, Mark S. Melickian and Etahn M. Cohen and “Financing a Chapter 11 Case: Debtor-in-Possession Financing” co-authored by Jonathan P. Friedland and Elizabeth B. Vandesteeg.

In August 2017, the American Bar Association published the third revised version of its widely acclaimed treatise, Reorganizing Failing Businesses featuring chapters co-authored by Sugar Felsenthal Grais & Hammer LLP attorneys. The publication included chapters entitled, “United States Securities Laws Implications of Corporate Restructurings,” authored by Aaron L. Hammer, Etahn M. Cohen and Mark S. Melickian, and “Financing a Chapter 11 Case: Debtor-in-Possession Financing,” authored by Jonathan P. Friedland and Elizabeth B. Vandesteeg. The treatise analyzes key situations from the perspective of the varied constituencies within a restructuring process and application of the bankruptcy code in that context. The treatise also details how bankruptcy laws interact with a variety of other legal disciplines including federal securities laws, intellectual property, antitrust, tax, health care, and environmental laws.
